Buckingham

A sheep buyer came through Buckingham last week and farmers who wanted to make a change and get better sheep sold their entire flocks in some instances. The prices paid for the flocks that I saw seem to be $4 per head for sheep and $4 per head for lambs.

I saw a man pay $3 15 tax on a worthless female dog. I asked of the treasury people what the dog tax in this county amounted to last year and I was told around $2000 was what was collected.

Notice was given out at St Andrews church last Sunday that Rev. Mr. Barrell would preach there on the 2nd Sunday in June. The Sunday school there meets regularly at 3 o'clock on Sunday evenings and there were 35 to 40 persons in attendance last Sunday. They have adopted the class discussion plan and they like it fine. Mr. David C. Cook sent the books to us for the months of May and June and the C. D. C. class discussion plan is so popular that the new books for July have been ordered in advance.

The death of Mrs. Thorington at her home in Alabama cast a gloom over this community last Sunday. Mrs. Thorington was pretty and attractive Miss Kate Patteson before her marriage and was the niece of our neighbor, Mr. George W. Patteson.

The splendid season which came last week enabled farmers to plant their tobacco.

The Board of Supervisors meets today and the meetings are attended by about one half as many people as attend court.

The colored man Brown Saunders, or Sam Brown, who was so badly wounded died at a hospital in Farmville. The man Luke Brown who is in jail here charged with the killing will probably be tried at the next term of circuit court.

A colofel woman named Genever Oliver, has been taken to the Central State hospital by her people.

Williams & Miller are installing the new machinery in their mill here and expect to be ready to grind the new crop of wheat.

Mr. J B. Lesueur, of Slate River Mills has ground up all the wheat he had, sold out all the flour he had on hand and now is putting his mill in order to grind the new crop.

Rev. John L. Rogers motored here from his home in West Virginia and spent the week visiting his friends.

A collection was taken at the Glover Sunday School last Sunday for the starving people in the East.

Mrs. B. M. Swoope is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs P. P Glover this week.

Vera

Mrs. Scruggs, who has been so ill with Erysipilas, in Roanoke, we are glad to learn is much better. She is now visiting her son, John Scruggs of this neighborhood.

Mrs. Charles Grow, who has been quite ill is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Megginson and baby, Elizabeth, Mrs. Grow and Miss Florence Grow spent the week-end with Mrs. Megginson's parents, at Andersonville.

Mrs. A. C. Menefee left Friday for Lynchburg, to attend the marriage of her son, Jesse, to Miss Thelma Evans, on Saturday at the home of her uncle, Mr. Gilliam.

We are glad to see Mrs. Cornelia Anderson out after a severe spell of sickness.

Mrs. Bettie Megginson, of Lynchburg, who has been visiting relatives in this neighborhood returned home last week accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lewis.

Rev. Mr. Oakey and wife Evangelists, of Danville, are holding a protracted meeting at Mt. Herman. The community seems much interested.

Mr. T. P. Kinney and Mr. R K. Moss, of Danville, motored over last week. Mr. Kinney accompanied by Miss Margaret Brown, returned to Danville Saturday. Mr. Moss will be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Kinney for a few weeks.

Miss Mary Babcock, of Appomattox, was a pleasant visitor to our neighborhood Sunday.

Mr. Jim Childers is supporting a new car.

Mrs. Will Childers had the misfortune to lose ten chickens last week while the family were at church some "Pesky Varmint" invaded her chicken house with the above results

Pattie B. Gregory

Mrs. Pattie B Gregory, widow of the late N. H. Gregory, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs J D. Morris, here on June 1st, and was buried at Liberty cemetery on the following day. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. P. East, assisted by Revs. W. S. Royal and W. G. Bates, Jr. A large crowd attended the funeral services and many beautiful floral designs covered her last resting place. She survived her husband three years and leaves surviving her four children: Mr. A H Gregory and Mrs J D. Morris, of Appomattox; Mrs R. C. Moore, of Stapleton; and Mr. L. N. Gregory, of Portsmouth, Ohio. She was the daughter of Abner and Elizabeth Ellett, of Nottoway county Va.

Mrs. Gregory spent all her married life in Appomattox, where she was well known and loved by all who knew her. It can be truly said of her, that she was a good Samaritan in every sense of the word During her long illness she received the tender and affectionate attention and sympathy from her people and friends. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for forty three years, and with her passing to the other world, Appomattox has lost one of its best women, neighbor and friend. Her gentle disposition and sacrificing devotion to those about her endeared her greatly to a wide circle of friends. She was a great sufferer, and these friends rendered her the tenderest care and affection possible. The community will miss her and especially the afflicted and unfortunate. Her memory will be cherished and her children called her blessed

New Currency at the Farmers National Bank of Appomattox

One of the interesting things a visitor to Washington City always notices is that practically all the Bank Notes are fresh and crisp right off the press of the Bureau of Engraving. The Farmers National Bank of Appomattox, invites the public to exchange their old ten and twenty dollar notes for crisp new bank notes issued for them by the Treasury Department and signed by their own officers. New Currency with Appomattox printed thereon will put your town before the public as never before. Let everybody Boost Appomattox. 5-31-3t

Our correspondents are all busy on their farms and little news is reported this week.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Bluford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

5,000 VETERANS AT RICHMOND REUNION

Richmond, Va., May 29.—(Special)—Richmond is completing preparations to entertain the 32d annual convention of the United Confederate Veterans, on June 19, 20, 21 and 22. Fully 5,000 of the surviving 45,000 Confederates are expected to be within the city's hospitable gates. Most of them will be accompanied by one or more members of their families, and, in addition, there will be present members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy, the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, sponsors and maids and matrons of honor.

Comfortable Quarters.

Because of their age, the veterans this year will sleep in comfortable quarters. Thousands of them will stop at hotels and with relatives and friends, while others will be accommodated at reasonable cost, from $1.25 to $2 per day for lodging and breakfast, in private homes. Applications for quarters and inquiries concerning them should be addressed to Major B. B. Morgan, chairman of the Committee on Information and Quarters, Postoffice Box No. 685, Richmond. Dinner and supper, with the compliments of the City of Richmond and the Commonwealth of Virginia, will be supplied Confederate veterans who desire them on June 20, 21 and 22.

Reduced Railroad Fares.

The Southern Railway, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and, in fact, practically all the transportation systems in the South have agreed to give the veterans, accompanying members of their families, and members of auxiliary organizations the benefit of reduced fares to this city and return. These rates have been fixed as follows:

Veterans and accompanying members of their families, 1 cent a mile for each mile traveled.

Members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy, the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, other auxiliary organizations, sponsors and maids and matrons of honor, one-way fare for the round trip.

Identification Certificates.

Tickets will be placed on sale through the South in ample time for visitors to reach Richmond on or before June 19. As customary and in order to eliminate trouble in procuring tickets at the reduced rates of fare, identification certificates have been prepared and are being distributed to all veterans and members of Confederate and affiliated bodies. Individuals who are unable to procure them through usual channels should apply at once to Adjutant-in-Chief Carl Hinton, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Hotel Richmond, Richmond.

RICHMOND IS READY TO GREET VETERANS

Richmond, Va., June 5.—(Special)—Richmond has called for the remnants of that army which defended her for four years and by the thousands will the survivors answer the summons to be here on June 19, 20, 21 and 22. The last three days are those fixed for the welcoming and entertainment of the United Confederate Veterans at their 32d annual reunion. June 19 has been set as the date for beginning the ceremonies which will engage the attention of the Confederated Southern Memorial Association and of Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Preparations are now complete for taking care of the enormous number of visitors who are expected to attend the reunion. The veterans will be made comfortable at the hotels, with friends or relatives and in private homes.

Provide Comfortable Quarters.

Upon their arrival at the railroad stations in this city, each veteran will be met by a member of the Reunion Committee, given an identification card and assigned to quarters, if previous arrangements for accommodations have not been made. However, Brigadier-General Jo Lane Stern, chairman of the Reunion Committee, urges that all visitors make their reservations before coming to Richmond, applying to the hotels or to the Information and Quarters Committee, Postoffice Box No. 685, Richmond for quarters in private homes and boarding houses.

Reasonable cost, from $1.25 to $2 per day for lodging and breakfast, will prevail in private homes. Dinner and supper, with the compliments of the City of Richmond and the Commonwealth of Virginia, will be supplied Confederate veterans who desire them on June 20, 21 and 22.

Elaborate Program.

The program of exercises and entertainments probably will make this the greatest reunion in the history of the United Confederate Veterans. One of the most impressive exercises in which the veterans will take part will be the laying of the corner stone for the Matthew Fontaine Maury monument.

Addresses will be delivered by some of the South's greatest orators, there will be a great parade and review, band concerts, a Confederate ball and dozens of other features designed particularly to entertain and please the Old South's heroes.

Novelty for Jerusalem.

Jerusalem has passed through a siege and war without being damaged by the invaders or the besieged, for the first time in the history of the city. The British airplanes flew over the Holy city frequently to observe the movements of the Turkish forces, but no bombs were dropped on its historical buildings by order of General Allenby, the commander-in-chief. It was the eighteenth time the place had been captured since the city was built

"Alloy."

The word "alloy" is derived from a literal Anglicization of the French phrase "a la loi"—"according to law." The phrase was transported across the channel in connection with gold or silver reduced in value by admixture with inferior metals in accordance with regulations established according to the law, but the English insisted on pronouncing the French "loi" as if it were spelled "loy" and finally dropped the second syllable entirely, thus coining the word "alloy."

Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die. But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.
